

Official organization information:

- Legal name: Animal Victory Disaster & Abuse Fund
- Federal EIN: 88-3617975
- Status: United States 501(c)(3) public charity
- Mailing address: 1319 Military Cutoff Road, Suite CC, Unit 101, Wilmington, North Carolina 28405, USA
- Website: animalvictoryfund.org
- Contact: Janelle Babington, Founder & President
- Business phone: 800-634-3439
- Email: info@animalvictoryfund.org
- Purpose of gift: For its general charitable purposes

About the organization:

- Mission: Providing relief to animals affected by natural disasters and other crises, combating animal overpopulation, and advancing animal rights through charitable projects and initiatives.
- Established: 2022
- Growth: Contributions increased 48.7% from 2024 to 2025, based on public IRS Form 990 data.
- Impact: 2,416 animals directly assisted in 2025.
- Cumulative impact: Approximately 8,200 animals helped as of January 2026.
- Current state license: North Carolina Charitable Solicitation License SLO16275, valid May 15, 2026–May 15, 2027.
- Certificate: View the official certificate

Learn more: www.animalvictoryfund.org

Can someone in Canada leave a gift to a U.S. charity? Yes.

- A real example: Mat-Su College in Alaska confirmed receiving a bequest from the Estate of Nadine Beacock of London, Ontario. Read the short announcement
- Another U.S. animal charity: PETA tells Canadian supporters that they may name the organization as a beneficiary of a will. Read its Canadian guidance

A Canadian resident may name Animal Victory Disaster & Abuse Fund in a will. Canadian tax treatment varies; please consult a legal or tax adviser. Information current as of September 18, 2026.

Need more information? Email info@animalvictoryfund.org or visit animalvictoryfund.org/nonprofit-docs.